The White Pine Compound.

"It was early in the spring of '52 that this compound was originated. A member of my family was afficied with an irritation of the throatathended with a disagreeable cough. I had for some mouths previous thought that a preparation having for its basis the inside bark of white pine night be accompounded as to be very morful in disances of the throat and lungs. To test the value of it in the case allued to, I compounded a mail quintify of the medicine that I had been planning, and gave it in tecapeoutful doses. The result was encedingly graftlying. Within the days the irritation of the throat was removed, the cough subsided, and a speedy cure was effected. Soon after this I sent to a lady in Londenderry, N.
